IndiSoft Sponsors Baltimore PMI Scholarship Event

Maryland-based technology company helps professional organization host education benefit

COLUMBIA, Md., Aug. 23, 2011 – IndiSoft, a technology development firm that focuses on systems for the default services industry, announced today it is a gold level sponsor of the 3rd Annual Bishop/Klock Scholarship Fund Golf Tournament. The event benefits qualified students in pursuit of project management degrees from accredited institutions. The Baltimore chapter of the Project Management Institute (PMI) is hosting the event and providing the scholarships.

“This is a fantastic and unique opportunity for us to help future project managers complete their education and has allowed us to meet some of the brightest project managers in the country,” said Sanjeev Dahiwadkar. “IndiSoft is in a strong growth position to support the wonderful efforts of PMI, and we are thrilled to help others reach their full potential as well.”

IndiSoft is one of the leading technology providers in the mortgage default services industry. Through its RxOffice® platform, it helps consumers connect with housing counseling agencies, servicers and mortgage insurance providers.

The PMI is a nonprofit organization dedicated to educating project managers and promoting professionalism in project management.

“Companies such as IndiSoft understand the importance of partnership and pouring into future generations planting seeds for future harvest,” said Uttara Apte, manager of IT applications at Ciena and member of the PMI scholarship committee. “We are proud to partner with IndiSoft and believe this is the beginning of a long-term relationship.”
