IndiSoft Taps Hans Rusli as CEO

COLUMBIA, MD., Feb. 1, 2018 – IndiSoft, a technology development firm that specializes in systems for the financial services industry, has selected Hans Rusli as the company's new CEO. Rusli is responsible for the strategic direction of the company. Sanjeev Dahiwadkar, founder and CEO, now becomes IndiSoft's managing member and chairman of the board.

"IndiSoft is poised for aggressive growth and through our system, we will change the way the mortgage industry approaches compliance and business processes," Dahiwadkar said. "Hans' extensive industry network and business knowledge will help IndiSoft reach the next level and help us fulfill our vision and execute our strategy."

Rusli brings more than 25 years of diversified experience as a senior mortgage banking executive in servicing technology and mortgage enterprise risk management. Most recently, he was chief credit officer at Caliber Home Loans in Irving, Texas.

"I have known Sanjeev for a long time and am honored that he has entrusted the growth and direction of IndiSoft to me," Rusli said. "We share the same vision for excellence and passion for providing positive change through the use of technology."

Previously, Rusli spent 10 years at Bank of America as senior vice president in risk management where he oversaw credit quality control of all the bank's originations as well as regulatory and audit compliance. Earlier in his career, Rusli was senior vice president of servicing operations at Transworld Mortgage, senior vice president of investor services at First Nationwide Mortgage and a founder and CEO MSTD Inc., which introduced the industry's first default servicing web-based platform, BackInTheBlack. Rusli's proven success in default, risk management, mortgage servicing, banking and credit analysis will bring immense value to IndiSoft.
