IndiSoft Technology Supports Nevada Foreclosure Mediation

Nevada selects Hope Loan Port's (HLP) Mediation Platform Powered by IndiSoft's RX Office

COLUMBIA, Md., June 12, 2018 – Home Means Nevada Inc. (HMN), the administrator of the Nevada State Foreclosure Mediation Program, announced its choice of the Hope LoanPort (HLP) web-based platform as the designated channel for all stakeholders involved in the foreclosure mediation process in Nevada. The website features technology provided by IndiSoft, a provider of technology solutions for the financial services industry.

The platform will be implemented in stages with phase one scheduled to launch on July 1, 2018.

Mark Cole, president and CEO of HLP, remarked that “HLP is pleased to provide our collaborative platform that will enable a multitude of stakeholders to work seamlessly, efficiently, transparently and securely to assist distressed Nevada homeowners in avoiding mortgage foreclosure.”

HMN issued its directive to the various authorized parties involved in the foreclosure mediation process on June 1.

“Indisoft is excited to support the modernization of state-related consumer relief programs through its partnership with HLP,” said Hans Rusli, IndiSoft CEO.

Trustees, beneficiaries, residential mortgage servicers, grantors and creditors’ legal counsel should go to www.hlp.org/nevada to get information on registering and for periodic updates.

About HLP

HLP is a unique collaborative created in 2009 that engages the key stakeholders who work with families on homeownership - nonprofit counselors, advocates, mortgage lenders, servicers and investors, attorneys and government agencies. Being a national, neutral, nonprofit organization allows us to listen to all the parties and build solutions that support homeowners and incorporate the unique needs of all stakeholders. As a result, HLP unifies the housing industry by helping individuals and families achieve and sustain homeownership. Stakeholders share information with each other via our technology platform and collaborate to find solutions to help homeowners. To date, we have helped more than 600,000 homeowners and aspiring homeowners.
