

Thank You RX

Client Case Management System

Housing Counseling

Foreclosure Prevention, Home pre and post purchase, Financial Literacy, Rental and case management Services

Partners In Community Building, Inc. (PICB) and staff would like to say thanks for creating the RX system that allows us to serve our clients with a efficiently technique system.

Change was a challenge to us when we began switching from our present system to a new one; the staff and I are loving the change.

The American dream is purchasing a home in a neighborhood of choice and building an asset that will begin the step of acquiring wealth. Helping people keep their home is the number one goal of PICB. The team at RX is allowing us to reach our goal. We can't say thank you enough.

One

It allows us to manage the negotiating of client's defaults in a easier method.

Two

RX created a system to speak and establish a relationship with servicers and investors in a productive fashion.

Three

Programs and changes are introduced to counselor's that make the process of submitting request for modifications effortlessly.
